

Dr. Rajendra Poddar is a specialist in agricultural economics of with focus on natural resources management, water management, irrigation and agrarian policy. Dr. Poddar was born on June 25, 1964 in a farmer's family in Dhulkhed village on the banks of Bhima River in Vijaypur district. He is Professor (Agricultural Economics) and is currently serving as Head of Project Planning & Monitoring Cell (PPMC) in the Office of Vice Chancellor, University of Agricultural Sciences, Dharwad, Karnataka. He is a Post Doctoral Fellow from the Commonwealth Scientific and Industrial Organization (CSIRO), Australia. He is an Agricultural Graduate from the University of Agricultural Sciences, Dharwad (1986) and secured Master's (1990) and Ph.D. (1998) Degrees in Agricultural Economics from the University of Agricultural Sciences, Dharwad. He started his career in 1994 as Assistant Professor of Agricultural Economics at College of Agriculture, Vijayapur.

Dr. Poddar has received following recognitions for his works: Member, Study Committee on CADA, WALMI and PIM, Government of Karnataka, Rashtriya Paryavaran Award from Tarun Bharat Sangh of Dr. Rajendra Singh, Member, Integrated Water Resources Management Cell, Government of Karnataka, Endeavour Research Fellowship-2008 (Government of Australia). He has guided about 30 PG students and visited several countries including Australia, USA, Germany, Sweden, Denmark, Norway, Austria, Slovakia, Pakistan, Morocco and Nepal. He has handled about 20 research projects. He has published 11 Research Reports, 60 Research Papers, 8 Chapters in Books, 40 Popular Articles and has presented papers in national and international national conference/ workshop/ training etc. As Organizing Secretary he organized Global Water Meet for Climate Change Adaptation – Agrarian Perspectives during October 24-26, 2016 at UAS Dharwad.