

Dr. Ravishankar Rao is currently Professor in the Postgraduate Department of English Studies at Mangalore University. His current academic interests include Partition narratives, Canadian studies, film and theatre studies, and postcolonial theory. Dr Rao has taught courses on Indian Literature and Culture to Norwegian students as a Visiting Fellow at Volda University College, Volda, Norway, in 2005. He has participated in national and international conferences, and published papers in Canadian studies and other areas. He has served as a resource person for Canadian studies workshops, and organized lectures by visiting Canadian scholars at Mangalore University. Dr Ravishankar Rao extended his expertise to the Mangalore City Corporation, Mangalore, to finalise a Memorandum of Understanding with Delta City Corporation, Canada, in 2010. At the Mangalore University, he coordinates the Canadian Studies Initiative and is also Coordinator of the N. G. Pavanje Chair in Fine Arts. He initiated the first-ever Student-and-Faculty international academic exchange project between Mangalore University and Volda University College, Norway, in 1995.

