

Dr. Rohini Bannerjee, PhD (she. her. elle)
Associate Vice-President, Diversity Excellence
Professor of French
Saint Mary's University

Dr. Rohini Bannerjee, daughter of immigrants from Himachal Pradesh, India, was born and raised on unceded Mikmaki territory, on the Dartmouth side of the great harbour of Kjiptuk. Rohini is Associate Vice-President, Diversity Excellence and a Full Professor of French in the Department of Languages and Cultures at Saint Mary's University, Halifax, Nova Scotia, Canada. Her primary research focuses on the literatures and cultures of the Francophone Indian Ocean.

Rohini is the author of short stories and poetry, in both French and in English, appearing in Canada, India and Spain. Rohini is on the EDI Advisory Committee for Universities Canada, is a member of the Board of Directors for Adsum House for Women and Children and serves as a volunteer writing facilitator with the Immigrant and Migrant Women's Association of Halifax.