

Prof. Poonam Saxena

Vice Chancellor, National Law University, Jodhpur

Prof. Poonam Saxena is presently the Vice Chancellor of National Law University, Jodhpur. Prior to that she was Professor in charge of Law Center –II at Faculty of Law, University of Delhi. She specializes in Family Law, Property Law, Women and Law, and has been involved with teaching and administration for the past 35 years. She has been awarded Senior Fullbright Fellowship pursuant to which she has taught law at School of law University of Baltimore, at Maryland, U.S.A. She is Shashtri-Indo Canadian fellow and recipient of ‘Women and Development’ fellowship pursuant to which she had delivered lectures on Gender related issues in eleven different Universities across Canada. Very widely travelled in academic pursuits, both national and at global level, she has presented her views in more than 100 seminars, workshops and conferences. A prolific writer, she has authored 8 law books including 4 volumes on Halsbury’s Law of India which are treated as must for lawyers and Judges for references. She has also authored a number of articles that have been published in Journals both national and international and as chapters in several books.