

SICI Congratulates the Following Canadian Students on Receiving the 2024-25 Shastri Student Research in India Fellowships (SSRIF) Awards

#	Name & Details of Student Awardees	Project Title	Grant Amount
1	Prerana Das (F), Cultural Studies- PhD- Year 3, Queen's University	Embroidering empowerment: A study of handiwork by rural riverine women in Assam.	CAD 8,500
2	Dominik Formanowicz (M), Critical Human Geography, MA-Year 4, York University	Dilwale Residency Le Jayenge": Exploring the Aspirations and Capabilities of Indian Youth Becoming International Students in Canada.	CAD 8,500
3	Prashant Rayaprolu (M), Geography, PhD- Year 4, University of British Columbia	Global India: How Indian firms and institutions shape the globalization of services.	CAD 8,500
4	Katherine Nickelchok (F), Social Sciences, PhD- Year 2, Royal Roads University	Exploring India's Education Traditions for Modern Universities: A Path to Transformative Learning.	CAD 8,500
5	Piyush Pathania (M), Human Behaviors and Applied Psychology, BA- Year 3, Kwantlen Polytechnic University	Impact of Socioeconomic Status on Mental Health in India.	CAD 8,500
6	Aditya Guntoori (M), Philosophy - PhD, Year 3, McGill University	Skepticism in Indian and Greek Philosophy.	CAD 8,500
7	Joseph Duffy (M) Religious Studies MA, Year 2, University of Calgary	Lived Religion and Mythology in Pushkar.	CAD 8,500
8	Hariram Menon (M) Mathematics & Chemistry- BSc, Year 1 University of Calgary	Effect of Regular Replacement Therapy In Treatment Outcomes in Children with Severe Hemophilia in India.	CAD 8,500
9	Rupert Edward Mackie (M) Religions and Cultures, MA, Year 2 University of Concordia	Leaving it Behind: Ashrams, Immigration and Religion in Contemporary Tamil Nadu.	CAD 8,500
10	Nesibeh (Hana) Mirvakili (F) Chemical Engineering, PHD- Year 3, McMaster University	A retina-on-chip model to investigate targeted drug delivery to retina.	CAD 8,500
11	Bavan Pushpalingam (M) Political Science, BA-Year 3, University of Toronto	Brewing Justice: Rethinking Tea Production in Southern India through Labour Justice, Gender Equity, Food Security, and Agroecological Alternatives.	CAD 8,500
12	Lima Nizami (F) Human Studies & Interdisciplinary, PhD-Year 2 Laurentian University	Phase 1: An assessment of the criminal legal response to domestic violence cases in India- a review of the effectiveness of 'danger assessment' tool. Phase 2: Assessment of the criminal legal response to domestic violence cases in Alberta- a review of the assessment of the 'domestic violence appraisal guide' (much like the ODARA). A comparative study of both India and Canada.	CAD 8,500